

Pastor in Training Vacancy

Hope Church Tolworth, launched in November 2024, is seeking a servant-hearted, prayerful Pastor in Training. We are a growing church (averaging 85 in Sunday attendance), passionate about gospel ministry in a diverse urban context. This role will strengthen our team, support church growth, and invest in the next generation of gospel workers.

The Role

- 3-year fixed-term, part time contract for 36 hours/week (where full-time equivalent would be 40 hours) with potential for extension
- Total pay (including basic salary and family size dependent housing allowance) in the range of £30-37,000 gross per annum + generous pension contribution
- Based at our church office in Tolworth and other church venues
- An additional ~12 hours per week expected to be spent on theological studies (course work and revision); course fees will be covered by the church

How to Apply

The successful candidate must be a committed Christian man, hold the right to work in the UK, and accept our Statement of Faith and Doctrinal Distinctives.

Deadline: 19th May 2026

Applications – a cover letter - setting out your interest in the role and how you meet the requirements listed in the job description - and a CV should be sent to: hr@cmct.london with a copy to bart.erlebach@hopechurchtolworth.org
